

Rachel Patterson

---

Rachel Patterson is a lifelong code enforcement professional with over 14 years of enforcement experience within the industry. Rachel started her enforcement career in the private sector, moving to the public sector and now within a local Police Department. She has a positive outlook and approach to gaining compliance, as she believes everyone's story matters.

Rachel has served on various committees within the local Code Enforcement Association and was recently appointed to the